Spring Blue Collection

Welcome to Greece

Cyclades

A plethora of natural beauty and Endless Blue waters. The Cyclades offer the iconic white washed houses with royal blue doors. However they also offer stunning spring flowers that intensify the optical experience. Views that will stay with you forever.

An authentic Experience

Journeys begin from €11,650* for an 8 day 7 night charter with premium complimentary embarkations/disembarkations of Mykonos and Paros or Santorini disembarkation

*Add an on board tour guide to unfold the stories behind the intriguing past of Greece. See glorious well preserved ancient sites from time of antiquity. Or maybe treat yourself to an on board massage therapist to relieve your tired muscles from hiking through the ancient sites.

*An on board tour guide, health and wellness or yoga practitioner is only possible when it is a max party of 6. Additional services can be provided but cannot be on board for the duration of the charter. Additional costs apply.

Bike Rental

Jetski/Waverunner Rental

NOTE: All additional activities at sea are provided by a 3rd party local rental service. Passengers require the appropriate licensing for rental of any motorized vehicles (Jetski/Waverunners) or Skuba Diving. Clients rent at an additional cost not included in the charter rental and rent at their own risk. The vessel nor any members of the crew will be held liable for any injuries incurred from 3rd party sports rental agencies. A complete list of sea toys is provided upon vessel selection.

Lounging, Dining & Relaxing

There is a spot for everyone to be together and for some quality “me time” too. The two decks boast lounging and sunning areas both forward and aft. Want to get away for a little Mediterranean style siesta head to the upper deck and tuck away on the large comfortable seating that everyone affectionately names their 2nd bed. *sister vessel colors may change

Euro-USD Currency Agreement

Euro-USD Currency Agreement are offered for the client's peace of mind. The charterer is not subjected to currency fluctuations or currency risks. Our finance team secures USD funds for the entire contract and they reside in US based escrow accounts with a yacht charter manager that oversees all payouts and expenses on the account. Charterer has the right to pay contract in local currency Euro, however they require payment oversees directly into yacht's account and there is no yacht manager to oversee payments and expenses. Wire transfer is the only form of payment as credit card use is not accepted.

Preliminary Terms

The preliminary terms and conditions are the main terms that govern your yacht charter agreement. They can be found under our Preliminary Terms of our website for understanding your yacht charter agreement. www.allyachts4charter.info has useful information to help you understand your yacht charter.

Understanding Advanced Provisioning Allowance (APA)

Understanding your APA is critical to understanding your total financial requirements. The APA does not infer or imply an all-inclusive. We have provided a recommended APA for number of people and duration of charter.
